Cape Cod Pathways SPRING WALKING WEEKEND 2013

Friday, April 19, through Sunday, April 21

BARNSTABLE COUNTY, MA – Barnstable County's Cape Cod Pathways project is pleased to announce a Spring 2013 Walking Weekend, with walks and hikes scheduled to take place in many locations on Cape Cod during the weekend of April 19-21.

The event is organized by the Cape Cod Commission with support from Barnstable County's Department of Human Services "Mass in Motion" initiative, which is sponsored by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health.

A complete schedule and walk details are available as a "Google Map" on the Cape Cod Commission's web site: www.capecodcommission.org/quicklinks/walkingweekend

ABOUT THE CAPE COD COMMISSION:

Cape Cod Commission is the regional land use planning, economic development, and regulatory agency created in 1990 to serve the citizens and 15 towns that comprise Barnstable County, Massachusetts, better known as Cape Cod. The Commission works toward maintaining a healthy balance between economic progress and environmental vitality. "Keeping a special place special" describes the agency's mission to protect the region's unique qualities. The 19-member volunteer Cape Cod Commission board represents a wide spectrum of the community and provides oversight for a staff of 35 professionals. The Commission is responsible for regional planning, policy, and regulations to help manage growth, and the agency supports the Cape's 15 towns with cost-effective planning and technical services.
