Article 1: Name, Purpose, Duties and Compliance

Name: The Cape Cod Joint Transportation Committee (CCJTC) operates as an advisory group to the Cape Cod Metropolitan Planning Committee, and has been established by agreement among its co-sponsoring agencies, including the Cape Cod Metropolitan Planning Organization (Cape Cod MPO), the Massachusetts Department of Transportation (MassDOT), Massachusetts Department of Transportation (MassDOT) Highway Division, and the Cape Cod Regional Transit Authority (CCRTA).

Purpose: The Cape Cod Joint Transportation Committee was established for three main missions:

- (1) to advise the Cape Cod Metropolitan Planning Organization on all matters of policy affecting the region in its implementation of the Federal 3C Transportation Planning Process, that is, a process that is Comprehensive, (integrates the stages and levels of transportation planning for the Cape Cod region); Continuing (plans for short and long range needs of the regional transportation system); and Cooperative (coordination among public officials and invites participation at all stages of the transportation planning process);
- (2) to make recommendations on regional transportation work activities, plans, studies, project priorities and financial constraints as may be required for the effective operation of the Cape Cod MPO;
- (3) To provide maximum participation in the transportation planning and programming process by creating a forum to bring together officials of local government, public agencies, transportation providers, interest groups and residents for open dialogue and the exchange of views on current transportation issues.

Duties: The Cape Cod Joint Transportation Committee is advisory to the Cape Cod MPO, Massachusetts Department of Transportation and its Highway division, and the Cape Cod Regional Transit Authority Its responsibilities include obtaining public input and making recommendations to the Cape Cod Metropolitan Planning Organization on compliance documents prepared under the Federal 3C Planning process, including but not limited to the Unified Work Program, the Transportation Improvement Program, the Regional Transportation Plan, and the Public Participation Plan. The Cape Cod Commission (CCC) provides the staff to support the work of the CCJTC under the supervision of the CCC Executive Director.

Compliance: The Cape Cod Joint Transportation Committee complies with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and related federal and state statutes and regulations. In addition to federal transportation legislation, the transportation planning process complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA); the Clean Air Act; Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; Executive Order 12898; Executive Order 13330; the Global Warming Solutions Act; and MassDOT Policies.

It is the policy of the Cape Cod Joint Transportation Committee to ensure that no person or group of persons shall on the grounds of Title VI protected categories, including race, color, national origin, or under additional federal and state protected categories including sex, age, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, religion, creed, ancestry, veteran's status (including Vietnam-era veterans), or background, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be otherwise subjected to discrimination under any program or activity administered by the Cape Cod Metropolitan Organization (Cape Cod CMPO). To request additional information about this commitment, or to file a complaint under Title VI or a related nondiscrimination provision, please contact the CCMPO's Title VI Coordinator by phone at (508)362-3828, TTY at 508-362-5885, fax (508) 362-3136 or by e-mail at TitleVI@capecodcommission.org.

If this information is needed in another language, please contact the Cape Cod MPO's Title VI Coordinator by phone at (508)362-3828.

Caso estas informações sejam necessárias em outro idioma, por favor, contate o Coordenador de Título VI da MPO pelo telefone 508-744-1299.

Article 2: Membership

The Cape Cod Joint Transportation Committee (CCJTC) shall be comprised of sixteen voting members.

The voting members of the CCJTC shall be derived as follows:

- (1) One member representative shall be from each of the fifteen towns in Barnstable County. This shall, by operation of these bylaws, be the Director of Public Works unless the Board of Selectmen/Town Council of the town appoint a different representative and file its vote with the Chair of the CCJTC. The member representative shall appoint a designee to serve in his/her absence as an alternate and notify the Chair of the CCJTC of this designation. An alternate may only vote if the member is absent.
- (2) A bicycle representative and his/her alternate shall be appointed by a majority vote of the CCJTC.
- (3) In the event a voting member is no longer serving the board in that capacity (i.e. has resigned his/her position in writing, is no longer the active Director of Public Works, or has failed to attend four or more consecutive meetings, that voting member may be replaced by that town's Board of Selectmen/Town Council or, in the case of the bicycle representative, by the CCJTC, as provided by clause (1) and (2) above.

These sixteen members (or in his/her absence, his/her alternate) shall each be eligible to vote at CCJTC meetings on business requiring such action provided the member (or his/her alternate) is present at the meeting, or has properly utilized remote participation in accordance with the Open Meeting law and its enabling regulations. Each member town has one vote; the bicycle representative has one vote.

Other attendees: Attendance and participation are encouraged by representatives of the following groups, who are non-voting, but whose input in the process is important:

- a) Representatives from the Massachusetts Department of Transportation and its Highway Division, including the District offices;
- b) A representative of the Cape Cod Commission;
- c) A representative of the CCRTA;
- d) A representative of the Barnstable County Commissioners;
- e) A representative of the Assembly of Delegates;
- f) A representative of the Mashpee Wampanoag Tribe;
- g) A representative of the Association to Preserve Cape Cod;
- h) Any other individuals who may assist the CCJTC in its role of making recommendations to the Cape Cod MPO including such as elected officials, members of the public, representatives of the public and private institutions, and representatives of major transportation providers.

Article 3: Officers

Officers: The Officers of the CCJTC will consist of a chairman and vice-chairman to direct and carry out the business of the CCJTC.

Selection of officers: At the CCJTC's meeting in May, the chair will declare the meeting open to officer nominations from the floor and any such nominations will be recorded and added to a slate of officers to be voted at the next monthly meeting held by the CCJTC. At the following meeting, if only one candidate is on a ballot, that person may be confirmed by motion. Any member who wishes to submit an absentee ballot shall request one of Cape Cod Commission staff; all absentee ballots received by CCC staff by the close of business the day before the CCJTC meeting shall be opened and counted at the meeting.

If there is more than one candidate, the chair will take a roll call vote of each voting member present and open any absentee ballots submitted during the CCJTC meeting. The candidate with the most votes shall be declared. This process will be followed for each office. The Chair will abstain from voting and shall only vote in the case of a tie. Each officer term shall be for one year.

Duties of officers: The Chairman has the duty, when present, to chair the CCJTC meetings. This will include calling the meetings to order, of announcing the business of the meeting in accordance with the agenda (but has discretion to call the agenda items out of order if he/she deems appropriate), of setting the future agendas, to facilitate discussion by those in attendance at the CCJTC meetings, to accept motions and call for votes as required, to decide all points of order and to sign all resolutions, proceedings and correspondence of the CCJTC and any other discretionary powers as the CCJTC may deem necessary. In the Chairman's absence, the vice-chair will chair the meeting. All duties are to be performed in accordance with the Massachusetts Open Meeting Law.

Article 4: Standing Committees/ Subcommittees

The CCJTC may establish standing committees or subcommittees as may be necessary for the proper conduct of its business. Members of standing committees and/or subcommittees and their Chair will be appointed by the Chair of the CCJTC on an as needed basis.

Article 5: Meetings of the CCJTC

Call of meetings: Meetings of the CCJTC will be scheduled by the Cape Cod Commission staff with the approval of the Chair on a regular, usually monthly basis. Special meetings may be called as may be required by urgent business. All meetings shall comply with all requirements of the Massachusetts Open Meeting law. Any person may request placement on the mailing list to receive CCJTC agendas.

Quorum: A quorum for any meeting shall consist of a simple majority of the members of the public body.

Article 6: Amendments

Amendments to the Bylaws: These bylaws may be amended ~~provided after notice and the text of the proposed to that effect containing the sections of the Bylaws affected and the text of the proposed amendment~~ has been sent with the agendas of two successive regular meetings of the CCJTC to the town clerk of all municipalities in the County and to all current CCJTC representatives. The proposed amendment will be on the agenda of the first meeting to explain the draft and on the second CCJTC meeting for discussion and potential vote.
