

Map created by the Cape Cod Commission GIS Department, a Division of Barnstable County on November 7, 2005.

Water level ranges are not shown in wetlands and water bodies where the technique described in the report are generally not applicable. Field investigation to determine on-site conditions is needed in these areas for proper evaluation of site suitability for application of the technique.