Massachusetts Association of Historic Preservation Commissions
The Massachusetts Historical Commission

- Established in 1963 to identify, evaluate and protect the significant historic and archaeological assets of the Commonwealth.

- Staff at the MHC includes architectural historians, preservation planners, planners, archaeologists and architects.
Local Government Programs at the Massachusetts Historical Commission

Assisting all 351 Cities and Towns of Massachusetts in Community-Wide Historic Preservation Planning.

Primarily, the Local Historical Commissions and Historic District Commissions
50 Years of Local Historical Commissions
1963-2013
“The effectiveness of the [local] historical commissions as a group in influencing public policy suffers from the lack of a statewide association.”
Even though there are nearly 3000 members that make up the commissions, they are not well represented.

Recommendation: Establish a statewide association of local historical and historic district commissions.
Who Ya Gonna Call?

3 ½ Years on my regional school committee

Who was our advocate for the needs of school committees?
Welcome

Welcome to the Massachusetts Association of School Committees (MASC). The MASC mission is to achieve excellence in school committee leadership through advocacy, training and service. We are pleased to offer a rich array of publications, web site resources, workshops, conferences and other support for the valuable school committee work that our members do.

If you're a current MASC member, you'll find our site has a number of resources for MEMBERS ONLY. You'll need to register first, using the special Member Code we mailed to you or you can request it here. Once you create your account (which is fast and free), you'll have instant access to all the MEMBERS ONLY content. Get started here.
Massachusetts Association of Conservation Commissions

conservation education advocacy

New Highlights:

- Now available for purchase the new, updated, and expanded Protecting Wetlands and Open Space: MACC’s Environmental Handbook for Massachusetts Conservation Commissioners.

Use the MACC Web Forum
Ask questions, get answers, share your knowledge and experience. Be part of the conservation conversation!

Enter Forum ▶

Runoff, Erosion & Sediment Control Field Guide
This pocket-sized, waterproof Guide is the first of its kind in the northeast.
Massachusetts Association of Agricultural Commissions

Welcome to the Massachusetts Agricultural Commissions Web Site!

Here you will find everything you need to know about Agricultural Commissions, from whom to contact with questions to current events, how to sign up, and more.

Resources
- Newsletter
- Newsletter Archive
- Publications
- Meetings
- FAQs
- Glossary
- Forum (Yahoo ListServ)

Laws and Regs
Funding
Get Started

Thanks for your participation in the MAAC Annual Meeting
March 15, 2014
Photos and presentations click here
MAHB’s mission is to assist and support boards of health in meeting their statutory and service responsibilities, through programs of education, technical assistance, representation, and resource development.

Massachusetts Boards of Health are responsible under general laws, state and local regulations, for disease prevention and control, health and environmental protection, and promoting a healthy community.

News and Announcements

MAHB Legal Handbook 2011 Edition

SAVE THE DATES! MAHB 2014 Certificate Training Taunton Nov 1 & Marlborough Nov. 15th

March 12, 2014 Animal Control Certification Training

Boston Draft Medical Marijuana Regulations

New Tool for Boards of Health! 6 Functions of Public Health Governance

Find us on Facebook

50 people like MAHB.org.
Who is missing from this list?
Massachusetts Association of Historic Preservation Commissions

“Representing the interests of local historical commissions and historic district commissions of Massachusetts”
Who is ready to join me in this quest?
Let’s start small. How about a Massachusetts Association of Historic Preservation Commissions website?

What would you like to see on a MAHPC website?
I am greatly impressed by the dedication and superhuman volunteer efforts of local historical commissions and historic district commissions.
A big thank you for serving on your local historical commission and historic district commission!